

Fondo Dirección Student Led Programs (FD): 2023 -2024

Purpose: Fondo Dirección enables students and student organizations to affiliate with the components of Proyecto Dirección and initiate cultural, educational, and political programming consistent with their assessment of community interest and need. Grants to students and student organizations will be made available to support the advancement of University of Redlands’ HSI mission. Programming will further deepen the sense of belonging of all Latinx students on the university’s campus or create opportunities for students to practice leadership and mentoring skills.

Eligibility: Any University student, undergraduate or graduate is eligible to apply for these funds. Preference will be given to proposals that: (1) advance the University of Redlands’ HSI mission (2) foster a sense of belonging of Latinx students on the university’s campus (3) demonstrate student leadership or mentorship of fellow students. Please submit applications to HSI@redlands.edu.
