

The Ann S. Lucas Community Service Summer Internship Program

Instructions for Application

- A stipend of up to $3,000 will be awarded to students completing service at an agency serving under-served and under-represented children within any urban area in the United States.
- There are unlimited possibilities such as:
  - o Teaching a class in the arts
  - o Facilitating English classes with non-English speaking parents and youth
  - o Organizing sports and recreation activities
  - o Working with teams of kids to beautify a building or community center – cleaning, painting gardening!
  - o Being a camp counselor
  - o And more . . .create your own internship with a non-profit agency.
- Application process due March 27th.
  - o Materials are attached or provided in the CSL office.
- Eligible students for this program must be enrolled as full-time undergraduates at the University of Redlands.
- Contact the Office of Community Service Learning at (909) 748-8288 for more information.