Professional Development

An integrated program of professional development is planned and implemented by administration and teachers.

Experienced support providers and instructional coaches provide ongoing assistance to new teaching faculty.

There is a strong emphasis on learning theory and teaching strategies to meet the needs of a diverse student population.

The District commits to staff development by providing adequate release time for teachers to attend conferences, professional meetings, and conventions.

Over 30 colleges and universities within driving distance provide a wide variety of programs for professional growth and advanced degrees.

The District continues to support the development of new instructional content and practices to support student learning, including Common Core and Next Generation Science Standards. We are committed to providing and training our teachers to implement technology on a daily basis in the classroom.
