Frequently Asked Questions about Verification

What is verification and why do I have to do it?

Verification is one form of financial aid “quality control.” The process enables Student Financial Services to verify the accuracy of the information that you provided on your application for financial assistance. The United States Department of Education (DoED) selects you to complete the verification process. Some students are selected every year and some are never selected at all. In some cases, the University of Redlands may institutionally select students to complete the process.

Do I really have to complete the verification process?

YES! Regardless of how or why you were selected, you must complete the verification process in full if you wish to receive any financial aid. Scholarships and grants will not be credited to your student account until verification is completed. In addition, loans will not be processed and you will not be allowed to begin a Federal Work Study job.

How long do I have to complete the verification process?

To expedite your financial aid package, you should respond as soon as possible. Your financial aid will not be finalized until the verification process is complete. It is your responsibility to ensure that your verification paperwork is returned to Student Financial Services in a timely manner.

PLEASE NOTE: Students who do not complete verification before the start of classes will have the federal and state portions of the package temporarily canceled. Students will be responsible for financing the entire semester balance until the verification is completed. Once verification is complete and eligibility determined, the federal and state portions of financial aid will be reinstated or adjusted if applicable.

What does my verification “group” mean?

The Department of Education has implemented verification groups V1, V4 and V6. Please refer to your verification letter for a list of the documents that you must provide for your verification group, as each group has distinct requirements. If you have further questions please contact Student Financial Services.

I am a high school senior and I do not have documentation showing my high school completion status. What will happen to my financial aid file in the meantime?

Your financial aid package will remain “tentative” and will only be finalized after you are able to provide your final high school transcript or copy of your official high school diploma.
