

Alumni Association Board of Directors Director Biography

Tyrone J. Aburto, University of Redlands, 2019, 2020

Career

Tyrone Aburto is an Associate Director of Healthcare Operations with Planned Parenthood Federation of America (PPFA), which offers a full range of family planning, reproductive healthcare, LGBT & Transgender care services nationally. Over the last 16 years, Ty has served in project management, operations, training and staff development, people operations, and has led multidisciplinary teams in delivering high quality, inclusive and culturally competent healthcare. Before joining Planned Parenthood in 2012, Ty was the Director of Clinical Services with a Federally Qualified Health Center responsible for daily operations of multiple programs including primary care, reproductive health, pediatrics, prenatal, and a mobile medical unit. Ty's experience also includes community outreach and education focusing in programs such as adolescent health, teen clinics, peer educator trainings, HIV/STD risk reduction and street outreach to the homeless, migrant workers and substance dependent individuals.

University of Redlands

As an undergraduate student, Ty was nominated by his cohort to the Whitehead Leadership Society and actively recruited others to participate in school activities and take advantage of the university's speaker series.

As a graduate alumnus, Ty continues to be an ambassador of the University of Redlands by sharing his experience and encouraging others to pursue higher education with U of R.

Community and Civic

Ty continues to serve his community by collaborating with national healthcare organizations that focus on meeting the community's health needs and priorities. He actively meets with leaders to discuss community needs, expansion of healthcare services and increasing equity and access to reproductive health services.

Education

Ty earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business in 2019 and a Master of Science Degree in Organizational Leadership in 2020 from the University of Redlands.

Personal

Ty has been enjoying married life with his husband, Erik, (UOR 2019, 2020), since 2004. They have had the amazing opportunity to embark on their higher education journey together and have studied side by side in the same cohort for both their Bachelor's and Masters programs at the University of Redlands. When not working or studying Ty enjoys road trips, home improvement projects, gardening, craft beer and exploring vintage shops.
