

Alumni Association Board of Directors Director Biography

Christian Curry
College of Arts & Sciences '20

Career

After graduating from the University, Christian was hired on as a staff assistant in the Arizona delegation for the United States House of Representatives. Currently, he is serving as a District Representative for the U.S. House of Representatives.

University of Redlands

While a student at the University, Christian was very involved with campus life. As a member of the Associated Students of the University of Redlands, he served as a two-term senator his Junior and Senior year. While serving in this position, Christian served a crucial role as a student-liason in the University's search for a new food service provider. Christian sought to form a committee which formed close-relations within the student body and the selected provider. Additionally, he served on the ASUR Convocations and Lectures Committee, which brought many notable speakers to campus.

Community and Civic

Christian enjoyed engaging with the Redlands community outside of academics. He enjoyed spending his Thursday nights engaging with the community at Market night held downtown. As a volunteer with the Office of Community Service and Learning (CSL), he served as a mentor in the Big Buddies Program.

Education

Christian graduated from the University with a Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy and Economics. In his junior year, he studied abroad with IES in Freiburg, Germany. During this semester, he studied European politics and was provided the opportunity to meet with Government officials and Non-Government Organizations (NGOs). He is a member of the international economics society, Omicron Delta Epsilon and Sigma Alpha Pi, a leadership and service oriented organization.

Personal issues

Post-graduation, Christian moved back to Arizona to be close to family and pursue various hobbies such as road-cycling. Outside of work, he enjoys cooking, hiking, and exploring local cafes and coffee shops. He continues to keep in touch with friends from Redlands, many of whom have been friends since living together in Williams Hall freshman year.
