

How to Make a Documentary - JNST OOOH

4 units

T/TH 1:00 – 2:20pm

Prof. Kelly Hankin

This seminar is devoted to the process of conceptualizing, researching, and developing documentary projects. This course will be split into three components: 1.) a “crash course” on documentary style 2.) learning about and practicing specific documentary techniques—e.g., interviews, reenactments, narration 3.) pre-production—e.g., proposal writing, budgeting, scripting and 4.) creating individual or collaborative documentary projects. Documentaries will be made using students’ own equipment—personal camera phones or cameras.
