Movement Lab: Experiments in Kinesthesia*

M W 9:30-10:50am

Prof. Julie Townsend

Fall 2020

In this class is open to anyone with a body! We'll discover the role of movement in our daily lives, in our thinking and learning processes, and in our art. We'll read about movement in dance theory and philosophy, and we'll do movement experiments such as improvisation, chance operation, and movement as translation.
