Northern Lights

Ēriks Ešņvalds
(b. 1977)

How many nights to the north did I see the northern lights fighting?
It was night, and I had gone on deck several times.
Iceberg was silent, I too was silent.
The northern lights are fighting in the skies,
they will bring war to our land.
It was true dark and cold. At nine o'clock I was below in my cabin,
When the captain hailed me with the words,
"Come above Hall! The World is on fire!"
I knew his meaning, and quick as thought,
I rushed to the companion stairs.
In a moment I reached the deck, and as the cabin door swung open,
A dazzling light, overpowering light burst upon my startled senses!
Oh, the while sky was one glowing mass of colored flames,
So mighty, so brave!
Like a pathway of light the northern lights seemed to draw us into the sky
Yes, it was harp music, wild storming in the darkness;
the strings trembled and sparkled in the glow of the flames like a shower of fiery darts.
A fiery crown of aurora light cast a warm glow across the arctic ice.
Like a pathway of light
the northern lights seemed to draw us into the sky.
Again at times it was like softly playing, gently rocking, silvery waves,
on which dreams travel into unknown worlds.
How many nights to the north did I see the northern lights fighting?

Lay A Garland

Robert Pearsall
(1795-1813)

Lay a garland on her hearse
Of dismal yew;
Maidens, willow branches wear;
Say she died true.
Her love was false, but she was firm
Upon her buried body lie lightly, thou gentle earth.

Rotaļa, Round -Dance

Juris Karlsons
(b. 1948)

Vidu! To the middle!
One came, the other went,
One lets go, another waves, vidu!
The outstretched hand is not yet grabbed,
You already swing along in a circle, vidu!
Freely, freely the days spin,
Hither, thither, part and join your hands,
Further joining, further swaying, vidu!
Freely, freely swirl around!

Lebenslust

Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

For life to be happy, you can't be alone,
If you should be lonely, the fault is your own.
If you will but trust in the love of a friend,
In joy you will find that your sadness will end.

Cantique de Jean Racine, Op. 11

Gabriel Fauré
(1845-1924)

O word, equal to the Most High, our only hope,
Eternal Light of the Earth and heavens,
We break the silence of the peaceful night with this song.
Divine Savior, cast your eyes upon us.

Spread over us the fire of Your mighty grace,
So that all evil might flee at the sound of your voice.
Dispel the sleep of a languishing spirit
That leads it to forget your laws.

O Christ, look favorably upon this faithful people,
Assembled now to bless you.
Receive the songs they offer to your glory,
And may they return, fulfilled by Your gifts.

Son de Camaguey

Stephen Hatfield
(b. 1956)

That's a beautiful thing,
that splendid coast.
Camagüey, how beautiful...
Those traditions,
oh, what marvelous sounds,
the sounds of Camagüey.
