BIOGRAPHY

Victoria Carrillo Batta, flute

Victoria Carrillo Batta is currently in her second year of study in the graduate program at the University of Redlands School of Music where she is under the tutelage of Sara Andon. Victoria is a regular performer with the Redlands Symphony, and also holds the third flute/piccolo chair in the highly acclaimed American Youth Symphony. Before pursuing a Master's degree in Flute Performance, Victoria completed a double degree at the University of Redlands in Music Performance and Music Education. Throughout her time at Redlands, Victoria has served as principal flutist of the University Wind Ensemble and Orchestra, and has been a winner of the highly distinguished University of Redlands President's Honor Recital on four separate occasions. She is most recently a winner of the University of Redlands Concerto Competition, and will be performing Carl Nielsen's Flute Concerto with the University Orchestra in the spring of 2016. She is an active member of the Music Teachers' Association of California and the world-renowned honors society Pi Kappa Lambda.
