The university is committed to the position that all students, faculty, employees, and applicants shall receive equal consideration and treatment. All student, faculty, and staff recruitment is on the basis of the qualifications of the individual for the positions being filled regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, non-disqualifying disability, or whether the individual is a disabled veteran of the Vietnam Era. The University fully conforms to state and federal laws and regulations such as Executive Order 11246 as amended, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, Title IX, as well as the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), and regulations issued there under, which bar discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, non-disqualifying disability, or status as a disabled veteran or a veteran of the Vietnam Era. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the University will make reasonable accommodations on an individual basis for the known physical and mental limitations of a qualified individual with a disability, unless the provision of such an accommodation imposes an undue hardship on the University, all as defined in the ADA and its regulations. The University of Redlands has been and remains committed to acting affirmatively to ensure equal opportunity. The objective of the Equal Opportunity Program is, wherever possible, to recruit actively and include for consideration for employment and as prospective students, members of minority groups, females, veterans, and the disabled. All decisions on employment and promotions must be made solely on the individual's merits and qualifications as compared with bona fide occupational requirements, which take into account any reasonable adjustments for the job in question. Personnel actions are analyzed to ensure the adherence of the policies described above. Regular reports are prepared for review of compliance. Inquiries concerning the application of University policies or federal and state laws and regulations described above should be made to the Human Resources/Equal Opportunity Office (909) 748-8040.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Because they are pertinent to registration functions, selected regulations have been excerpted from the Catalog as a reminder to registering students.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The University is committed to the concept of an advising appointment at least once each term between the student and a faculty member.

Students are assigned an advisor by the Dean's Office as they enter the University. Upon declaring a major, a faculty advisor in the major department(s) will be assigned by the department chair.

ATTENDANCE AT FIRST CLASS MEETING

Students are expected to attend all class sessions for courses in which they are enrolled.

Each instructor has the privilege of establishing regulations regarding attendance. Registered students who are not in attendance for the first class session of the term are subject to being dropped from the class at the discretion of the instructor.

Students who find they cannot attend the first class (or more) of the term should make arrangements with the instructor(s) as far in advance as possible.

When an instructor notifies the Registrar's Office to drop a student, the Registrar's Office will drop the class from the student's schedule and inform the student of this action within the first two weeks of classes. If this action creates a problem with a student's schedule, the student is responsible for making any appropriate adjustments through regular procedures in the Registrar's Office.

AUDITING

A student may audit a course with the approval of the Registrar and the instructor of the course. The instructor will not process or grade any exams or papers of a student registered for Audit.

Registration with a grade option of Audit (AU) is accomplished the same way as registering for a standard grade option.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

The University has a policy on Academic Honesty. It is published in the Catalog and must be read and adhered to by all students.

CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT

Students planning concurrent enrollment at the University of Redlands and another college or university must have courses approved in advance by the Registrar to ensure acceptance as transfer credits toward graduation.

School of Business students planning to cross-register must do so formally by securing the appropriate form from the Registrar's Office. This must be done within the stated times for registration, as shown listed in this bulletin, in order to avoid the late penalty.

FINANCIAL AID

Students receiving financial aid should ensure that they have completed all necessary paperwork in the Student Financial Services Office before attempting to register.

GRADING

Unless otherwise indicated, it is assumed that all courses are taken for a numerical grade.

If a student wishes to take a course on a Credit/No Credit basis or for Evaluation, this must be indicated on a Drop/Add slip and submitted to the Registrar's Office by the established deadline.

Some courses are offered on a restricted basis (numerical grading only) and therefore the student may not choose the Credit/No Credit grading basis.

The numerical grading is as follows:

4.0	equivalent to	A	2.0	equivalent to	C
3.7	equivalent to	A -	1.7	equivalent to	C -
3.3	equivalent to	B +	1.3	equivalent to	D +
3.0	equivalent to	B	1.0	equivalent to	D
2.7	equivalent to	B -	0.7	equivalent to	D -
2.3	equivalent to	C +	0.0	equivalent to	F

Students who elect a course on a Credit/No Credit (CN) basis and who are unsuccessful in the course will receive a mark of NC.

This grade will be posted to the permanent record in the Registrar's Office. The grade will NOT be calculated in the grade point average. It is important to note that certain graduate schools will interpret a grade of CR as 2.0, and an NC as 0.0.

Students who elect a course on an Evaluation basis (EV) and complete the course successfully will receive an EV notation on the permanent record and a written evaluation in the file. Those who are unsuccessful will receive a mark of VF (Evaluation—Fail). This mark will not be noted on the permanent record in the Registrar's Office. Neither an EV nor a VF will be included when calculating the grade point average. Johnston courses must be taken for an Evaluation, and cannot be numerically graded on the permanent record. A signed contract must be on file in the Registrar's Office to qualify for the grading option of EV.

INDIVIDUALIZED STUDY

Individualized Study is available in most departments and programs as follows. (The appropriate forms are available in the Registrar's Office.)

170, 270, 370, 470	Directed Study	(2 – 4)
180, 280	Exploratory Internship	(2 – 4)
380, 480	Specialized Internship	(2 – 4)
499	Honors Research Project	(2 – 4)
680	Specialized Internship	(2 – 4)

NOTE: Catalog courses may not be taken as Individualized Study.

REPEATING COURSES

Any student may repeat a course or courses for any reason. University policy provides that the course credits may be counted toward any degree only once and the course must be taken for the grading option for which it was originally taken. The grade received in the most recent taking will replace the earlier grade for cumulative grade point purposes, although both enrollments will be listed on the transcript.

TEXTBOOKS

For textbook information, including costs, students may visit <http://redlands.bncollege.com>.

CREDIT LOAD

The normal load for undergraduates is 16 credits per semester. When registration falls below 12 credits, students are not eligible to participate in certain extracurricular activities (such as athletics) and may jeopardize their financial aid status.

Each semester, a Dean's List is prepared to honor undergraduate students who have earned a grade point average of 3.65 or higher while taking 12 or more credits of work for a numerical grade.

All students who take more than 41 credits per year, or more than 19 in a half-year, must have permission to take an overload and will be charged an excess credit fee.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

A student withdrawing from the University must secure an official withdrawal form signed by the Student Affairs Office.
