

Banta Center for Ethical and Purposeful Leadership

BANTACENTER FACULTY GRANTS

Ethics Research Grant

The Banta Center Research Grants fund faculty engaged in scholarly work that addresses the role of ethical and Purposeful Leadership in social life, broadly construed.

Proposals can include, but are not limited to, the study of leadership, religion, business, medicine, science, economics, culture, public policy, law or government. The proposals may take up theoretical or applied themes and can incorporate a wide range of different methodologies, so long as they clearly identify the ethical import and significance of the research.

Faculty should electronically submit a brief proposal for funding, including their:

- Name
- Department
- Summary of proposed research
- Methods
- Outcomes
- Budget
-

to banta_center@redlands.edu. Please put "Research Grant" in the subject line. Proposals are considered on an ongoing basis. Contact Carlo Carrascoso at (909) 748-8887 with any questions.

Ethics Across the Curriculum Grant

The Banta Ethics Across the Curriculum (EAC) Grants support faculty, administration and academic support staff who endeavor to integrate ethics-related themes into their classes, courses of study or co-curricular programs.

Funds can be used to support guest lectures, field trips, travel expenses, student assistantships, books, multimedia, software or other related expenses. Theoretical or applied approaches are welcome. Curricular themes eligible for funding include, but are not limited to, philosophical or religious approaches to ethical inquiry, globalization, citizenship, community service, social problems in technology and science, environmental stewardship, social justice, cultural studies and academic integrity.

Faculty, administrators or academic support staff should electronically submit a proposal, including their:

- Name
- Department
- Title of the proposal
- Summary of the proposed class, project, program or event
- Description of its ethical significance
- Budget

to banta_center@redlands.edu. Please put "EAC Grant" in the subject line. Proposals are considered on an ongoing basis. Contact Carlo Carrascoso at (909) 748-8887 with any questions.

For more information go to Banta Center for Ethical and Purposeful Leadership web site at Banta Center