Notes About Your Offer Letter

Your financial aid offer letter is based on a housing status of "On Campus". If this is incorrect, please contact Student Financial Services.
 Please Note: Since this tentative notification of financial aid is an ESTIMATE based on the information you provided on the FAFSA, it is subject to change. Our office is required by the federal government to verify the information on the FAFSA. Upon completion of the verification process, you will receive an updated financial aid award letter.
 The following information is required to complete your file so that we may continue processing your application and finalize your financial aid offer. Copies of these forms are provided in this packet for your convenience. You can check the submission status of these items at any time through your admissions portal.
 2020 IRS Data Retrieval Tool for Parent(s) 2023/24 Group 1 Dependent Verification Worksheet

This is where any required documents will be listed. You will need to submit these documents so a final financial aid offer letter can be sent to you.

*An explanation of all financial assistance can be found in the enclosed guide "Affording a Redlands Education: Your Guide to Financial Aid, 2023-2024."

Please contact our office at 909-748-8047 or at sfs@redlands.edu if you have any questions regarding the above information.

Acceptance of financial aid indicates that you will abide by the policies, procedures and regulations included in all materials provided to you on this award letter, in the official University catalog, and on our website. Federal regulations require that you report any external sources not listed above (such as outside scholarships) to Student Financial Services. Before accepting any financial aid awards please review the conditions of your financial aid award.
