Fall 2019 New Student Orientation
Wednesday, August 28th through Monday, September 2nd

Wednesday, August 28th

Welcome Home!

All students check-in between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. to confirm arrival, verify documents are in order and receive their student ID which is also their meal card. If you've completed the New Student Checklist the process is quick and we try to keep the line moving! Students living on campus must check-in before going to their residence hall.

The Health Center and Student Financial Services will be in the Orton Center to assist as needed. If you need to take your Student ID photo, you'll visit the Student Affairs Suite on the 2nd Floor of the Hunsaker Student Center.

Families are invited to the Family Services and Vendor Fair to check out residence hall service providers and community partners.

After Check-In, residential students can move into their hall, commuter students can visit the Bookstore, Armacost Library or just relax before lunch.

ResNet Assistance
8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Bulldog Room, Hunsaker Student Center

ResNet (our Information Technology Service Department) will be in the Bulldog room to help students set up their computers and devices. You can also visit their web page.

NSO Information Booth
8:00 a.m. – 7:30 p.m.
Outdoor Plaza, Hunsaker Student Center

Have questions about orientation, need directions, want to visit with someone, stop by the information booth. Spanish speakers will be available.

Welcome Lunch
11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Main Quad

Our campus food service provider, Harvest Table, extends its welcome to all new Bulldogs and their families. They invite you to lunch on the Quad, on them!

UofR Family University
1:00pm – 4:00 p.m.
Memorial Chapel

Join other parents and families to experience what administrators and faculty members think makes someone a true "Bulldog for Life." There will also be a Q&A session with current student’s families. Don't miss this!

Orientation Group Meeting (M)
1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m.
Various Campus Locations – you'll leave lunch with your Orientation Leader (OL)

Returning students who have volunteered their time as Orientation Leaders (OL) will meet you on the Quad. Their goals are to guide you through NSO, give you an insider's perspective on life at the University, to help you meet other new students, and to answer questions that arise throughout the week and beyond. When you arrive on the Quad, look for someone holding your group number; that's your OL! Not sure of your group number? It can be found on your name tag and meeting locations can be viewed via the “OL Group #” tile on the “R” app.

Res Hall Welcome (M)
2:30 p.m. - 3:45 p.m.
Resident Halls

Residential Students gather in your Residence Hall lobby to meet your Residence Life and Housing staff and learn more about your new community.

Commuter Student Welcome (M)
2:30 p.m. - 3:45 p.m.
Hunsaker University Center, Student Involvement and Success (SIS)

Commuter Students gather in Student Involvement and Success (SIS) on the 2nd floor of the Hunsaker Student Center to connect with other commuter students who might end up being a friend for life! Also, meet staff members who can fast track your effort to get involved on campus.

Your orientation meal plan begins today! Bring your student ID, which is also your meal card, for access to the dining hall. You will eat with your Orientation Leader.

ResNet (our Information Technology Service Department) will be in the Bulldog room to help students set up their computers and devices. You can also visit their web page.

Have questions about orientation, need directions, want to visit with someone, stop by the information booth. Spanish speakers will be available.

Do you have questions about the new Student Health Insurance vendor? If so, come meet a representative from Gallagher’s Insurance Company during this information session.

Come join fellow families and University Administrators for breakfast before heading to your student’s First-Year Seminar session.

Find Your FYS in the Hunsaker Plaza after breakfast, they will be in order by number then your Peer Advisor will escort you to class. If you need to look up where you FYS is located see the "FYS Course List" tile on the "R" app.

Come explore the wealth of academic opportunities available in the College! Faculty and current students will be available to answer any of your questions about majors (including double majors), minors, academic internships, and other aspects of the curriculum. Start your first semester primed with knowledge of unforeseen intellectual possibilities! Students Only!

Take this opportunity to meet your student's FYS professor to ask any questions and hear about the class topic. Make sure you know their seminar name or number and if you need to look up where you students FYS is located, view see the "FYS Course List" tile on the "R" app.

Learn about Armacost Library resources and services and win some awesome Redlands swag! Lemonade and cookies provided.

A student's success is dependent on the sources of support that surround them, and how that support is used to grow confidence and capacity, particularly in their first year. The University Dean of Students, Dr. Donna Eddleman, will share her perspective, provide some foundational expectations of the partnership we endeavor to cultivate with families and challenge those attending to think about how they will provide support in this new environment.

Prep for the Future – Tomorrow & Beyond!

Don't forget your Student ID, which serves as your meal card!

Students who receive a work opportunity as part of their financial aid and are interested in working should attend one of the two in-person sessions or an online session. This workshop will tell you all you need to know about Student Employment opportunities.

The transition from college to professional life is often accompanied by feelings of trepidation and uncertainty. What steps should you take right now to secure a successful and fulfilling future after graduation? How you compete for community and campus leadership positions, graduate school, and professional opportunities? This session will highlight the various ways Career and Professional Development can help you maximize your potential at the University of Redlands and beyond.

Och Tamale Live is a student adapted sketch comedy show that is sure to make you laugh. The show explores the many thrills and hurdles to becoming a U of R student and will explore the theme of inclusion, independent/creative thinking, and honest self-reflection. Come join us to learn some helpful campus information and get some laughs while taking it all in!

Don't forget your Student ID, which serves as your meal card!

Shuttles depart periodically from the Chapel steps and take students to Citrus Plaza, a shopping center where you can shop at Target, Bed Bath and Beyond, Kohl’s and several other well-known stores. Your student ID is required to board the shuttle.
